

THIS LAND IS MY LAND... Art Beyond Translation 2008

Bringing the culture, diversity and emotion of Latin American art right into your heart.

In celebration of Hispanic Heritage month, Art Expressions will be hosting an exhibition of works by Latin American artists who call the Tri-County area home.

THIS LAND IS MY LAND... Art Beyond Translation 2008 is a chance to explore some of the most compelling and thought provoking works of Latin American artists living and working in South Florida today. Experience the undiscovered treasures, and nuances of fine art by artists selected by Francisco Sheuat and Ric Antey, owners of Art Expressions Gallery.

Art Expressions Gallery is dedicated to bringing the passion of our local talent to the public. Latin American artists have always captivated us and found resonance in our lives. There is particular passion unique to Latin American Art, a spirit that has been celebrated by artists such as Bravo, Tamayo, Rivera, Obaldia and Botero.

This exhibition at Art Expressions Gallery is the second of what is becoming an important yearly event. We invite you to enjoy their passions as they do... not merely with the eyes, but also with the heart at the opening of this significant event on Saturday, October 11th. 7pm - 9:30pm. The show will remain on view through October 31st. Admission is free. All are welcome.
